If the securities are in the possession of your stock broker:

- Notify Jill Scibilia, Director of Development (jscibilia@girlscoutsnyc.org), at (212) 645-4000, ext. 247, that you will be making a gift of stock. Please provide your name, address and telephone number; the name of the company whose shares you are transferring; and the number of shares so that your gift may be tracked and acknowledged for tax purposes. Please inform us if sale of the securities is restricted.
- To transfer shares to the Girl Scout Council of Greater New York, please follow these steps:

1. Contact the Bank of New York to let them know you are making a transfer to the Council. In advance of the transaction, they will set up a receipt at the Bank of New York. You may contact either one of these contacts at the Bank of New York:

Michael Smolinsky at (212)237-0845 or Patsy Velasquez at (212)635-1884

2. Provide the following information to the Bank of New York contact.
 - a. CUSIP number of the securities being transferred
 - b. The number of shares you are transferring.
 - c. DTC number from where the transfer originates.
3. Your broker will also require this information from the Girl Scout Council of Greater New York:
 - a. Bank of New York account # 134702
 - b. DTC #901
 - c. Tax ID # 13-1624014

- Important: Please instruct your broker not to create a new account at his or her firm into which the securities are transferred, but to transfer the securities directly into the above account instead. New accounts created for the Girl Scout Council of Greater New York are unauthorized. Creating a new account will delay the crediting of your gift for tax purposes and will result in additional costs that will reduce the value of your contribution.
