

Science Sleepovers

New York Hall of Science

Pack your sleeping bag and join us for a fun-filled overnight science adventure! Explore NYSCI's 400 hands-on exhibits, participate in science demonstrations, make a cool science craft, and experience a science theater show, all before camping out among the exhibits. Evening snack and light breakfast are included.

Time: 6 pm – 9 am

Fee: $40 per person

Add a New York Hall of Science sleepover patch for only $3!

Groups of 200 people or more can reserve their own private Science Sleepover night.

Groups with fewer than 200 participants can book into one of the following open evenings:

ShadowPLAY Sleepover

Saturday, March 20, 2010: Brownie/Girl Scout Sleepover

Saturday, March 27, 2010: Cub/Boy Scout Sleepover

Science Playground Sleepover

Saturday, April 24, 2010: Brownie/Girl Scout Sleepover

Saturday, May 15, 2010: Cub/Boy Scout Sleepover

Saturday, May 22, 2010: Brownie/Girl Scout Sleepover

Saturday, June 5, 2010: Cub/Boy Scout Sleepover

For detailed information about each theme please visit: www.nysci.org.

Call 718.699.0005 ext. 320 to register for your private or open sleepover today!

New York Hall of Science • 47-01 111th Street • Queens, NY 11368-2950 • www.nysci.org

Non-Profit
Organization
U.S. Postage Paid
Flushing, N.Y.
Permit No. 565